Will Miss Nancy or Miss Daby Christen the Battleably Illinois?

A special to the Battimore Sun yesterday contains the following:

"People in Illinois who make it a point to observe social forms are debation whether Governor Tanner is ignorant of social usages or was aware that L. Z. Leiter had two grown daughters.

"At the time the selection of theyong woman who is to christen the battleship Illinois was announced the Governor said he had chosen Miss Daisy Leiter for the honor; then he wired to Joseph Leiter that he had selected "Miss Leiter," and Colonel Joseph Leiter Miss Leiter," and Colonel Joseph at once telegraphed to his sister Nancy at Geneva Lake, Miss Nancy Leiter is Kounger than Mrs. Curzon and older than Miss Daisy Leiter, Geneya Lake, Miss Nancy Leiter is Kounger than Mrs. Curzon and older than Miss Daisy Leiter, See is, of course, "Miss Leiter," As it stands now, Miss Nancy is expected to christen the Illinois.

"Just after the Governor's announcement that he had selected Miss Daisy to act at the christening, that young lady was seen at the family residence by a reporter and said it was pleasant news to her. Soon after this she heard that her sister Nancy had notified the Gvernor of her acceptance.

"In one way this mistake is not strange, for Chicago people have heard much of the youngest daughter of the Leiter family since she "came out" two years ago. During the last two seasons in Washington she has been a great helle, as great as the captivating Mrs. Curzon ever was and as Miss Nancy Leiter would be if she cared much for such things.

"But Miss Nancy's friends say there are dearce things to her heart than dinners, halls and receptions. Still, she had all of these when she was presented to society some years ago. But the delight of the soon palled on her, and those who key we her best sny she cares more for study than for all the delights of the fashionable world.

"Miss Nancy Leiter has the beauty which has been showered so abundantly upon the women of her family. She has the height and state driving behind a dashing team of beyponies that were bought a little while ago from P. A. B. Winder, of Philadel. phia. People say they are the smartest pair of driving ponies in the United States, and they vie in Mr. Levi Z. Leiter's eyes with the sacred Indian cows that feed on his pastures at Linden Villa.
